Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District students may repeat a course in which a substandard final grade (~~D, F, NP, or NC, less than "C" and including FW~~) ~~or a withdrawal (W) was earned. The Board has determined reasonable limitations on course repetition as described in AP 4225 titled Course Repetition.~~

When course repetition occurs, the permanent academic record shall be annotated in such a manner that all work remains legible, ensuring a true and complete academic history.

Under special circumstances, students may repeat courses in which a C or better grade was earned. The special circumstances are defined in administrative procedure 4225.

~~Any courses taken in an effort to alleviate substandard academic work may be repeated twice for a maximum of three times in the Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District. This total includes all attempts in which a student has received a W or a substandard academic notation, and is inclusive in courses taken at either Cuyamaca College or Grossmont College. Exceptions may be permitted as defined in administrative procedures.~~

~~Under special circumstances as defined in administrative procedures, students may repeat a course in which a satisfactory grade was earned: if extenuating circumstances exist and can be demonstrated; a significant lapse of time has occurred and a recency requirement is in place at the college or transfer institution; the repetition is necessary to meet a legal mandate as a condition of continued pay or voluntary employment; the repetition is needed as a result of a significant change in industry or licensure standards; the repetition conforms with cooperative work experience purposes; or, a student with disability needs to repeat a special class for students with disabilities.~~
