Date Issued: September 5, 2012

Revised: June 14, 2022

In compliance with Education Code and applicable laws, the Grossmont-Cuyamaca Community College District (District) shall charge fees to students as approved by the Governing Board. The Chancellor shall ensure that the fees charged to District students, both required and those fees authorized by law, shall be published in detail in the Grossmont College and Cuyamaca College catalogs and posted on the District's website. The General Counsel's Office of the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office regularly publishes an updated student fee handbook that analyzes which fees are required and which are permitted, as well as those which are prohibited.

Required fees include:

Enrollment fee (Education Code Section 76300 and 76300.5; Title 5 Sections 58500 and 58509)

Each student shall be charged a fee for enrolling in credit courses as required by law. High school students who are enrolled at colleges within the District under the provisions of the High School Concurrent Enrollment procedures (i.e., special part-time enrollment as defined in Education Code 48800) shall be exempt from the required enrollment fee.

Non-resident tuition with these permissive exemptions (Education Code Sections 76140 and 76140.5)

- All non-resident students enrolling for 6 or fewer units; or
- A student who is a citizen and resident of a foreign country who demonstrates financial need and this required exemption (Education Code Section 68130.5);
- All students, other than non-immigrant aliens under 8 U.S. Code Section 1101 subdivision (a)(15), who meet the following requirements:
 - High school attendance in California for three or more years;
 - Graduation from a California high school or attainment of the equivalent thereof;
 - Registration or enrollment in a course offered for any term commencing on or after January 1, 2002;
 - Completion of a questionnaire form prescribed by the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office verifying eligibility for this non-resident tuition exemption; and
 - In the case of a student without lawful immigration status, the filing of an affidavit that the student has filed an application to legalize his/her immigration status, or will file an application as soon as he or she is eligible to do so.

- A nonresident student who enrolls in a credit English as a Second Language (ESL) course at the district and who is any of the following:
 - A recent immigrant, as defined in 8 U.S. Code Section 1101(a)(15);
 - A recent refugee, as defined in 8 U.S. Code Section 1101(a)(42); or
 - A person who has been granted asylum by the United States, as defined in 8 U.S. Code Section 1158.

This exemption applies only to individuals who, upon entering the United States, settled in California and who have resided in California for less than one year. This exemption applies only to the tuition fee for credit ESL courses.

Student representation (Education Code Section 76060.5; Title 5 Sections 54801 and 54805)

In addition to the enrollment fee, non-resident students shall be charged non-resident tuition for all units enrolled. Not later than March 1 of each year, the Chancellor shall bring to the Governing Board for approval an action to establish non-resident tuition for the following academic year. The fee shall be calculated in accordance with guidelines contained in applicable state regulations and/or the California Community College Attendance Accounting Manual.

The Chancellor shall establish procedures regarding collection, waiver, and refunds of non-resident tuition.

Fees authorized by law include:

- Athletic insurance (Education Code Section 70902(b)(9))
- Auditing fees (Education Code 76370):
 - Students auditing a course shall be charged a nonrefundable audit fee plus any required student or instructional material fees. The fee amount shall be adjusted proportionally based upon the term length. Students enrolled in classes to receive credit for 10 or more semester credit units shall not be charged this fee when auditing three or fewer units in the same semester.
- Child care (Education Code Sections 79121 et seq. and 66060)
- Community service courses (Education Code Section 78300)
- Copies of student records (including transcripts) (Education Code Section 76223)
 - The District shall furnish at no charge up to two (2) transcripts of students' records. After two (2) copies, the District shall charge a fee. The District shall not charge for searching or retrieving any student record. The District shall charge a processing fee for furnishing copies of any student record. Students may request special processing or rush processing of a transcript for an additional fee.
- Credit for Prior Learning (Education Code Section 76300; Title 5 Section 55050)
- Credit Card Use (Education Code Section 70902(b)(9))
- Cross-Enrollment with the California State University (CSU) or University of California (UC) (Education Code Section 66753)
- Dormitory (Education Code Section 81670)
- Health (Education Code Section 76355):
 - The District shall charge each student a fee for health supervision and services

The Chancellor shall ensure that the District does not charge fees that are prohibited by law.

Collection and refund of fees:

The Chancellor shall ensure that the procedures pertaining to the collection and refund of District fees include, but may not be limited to the following components:

- Fees to be collected when enacted by the Legislature following registration by the student
- Fees collected in error
- Fees refundable because of a reduction in the educational program of the District
- Fees refundable because of the student's reduction in units or withdrawal from an education program
- Fees refundable because of changes in law or regulation authorizing and establishing enrollment fees
- Notice to students of availability of exemptions from certain mandatory and authorized fees

Additionally, the Chancellor shall ensure that the Refund Schedule for fees collected; including any limitations due to class deadline dates; are published in the Grossmont College and Cuyamaca College catalogs and posted on the District website. The District Refund Schedule which addresses the following categories can also be located in the colleges' Admissions and Records Offices:

- Tuition and Fees
 - Full semester courses
 - Eight week courses
 - Other short term classes
 - Erroneous determination of non-resident status
 - Compulsory military service requiring withdrawal
 - Withdrawal from college or reduction of program
- Textbooks
 - Refunds – New and used texts
 - Buyback – New and used texts

CCLC Update #42, V3

Students may initiate a request for refund via Petition. Students will only be eligible and receive a refund within the same Fiscal Year. Petitions for refund will only be accepted and reviewed for classes dropped within the same fiscal year (July 1 to June 30).

Students may opt-out of the voluntary $2 Student Representative Fee by submitting an Opt-Out Form to the Cashiers Office within the semester. All forms are due by the last day of the semester and cannot be submitted for past terms.

Waiver of Fees

Reference: Title 5 Section 58629

The District may waive enrollment fees which were not collected in a previous session where the enrollment fees were not collected as a result of the District's error in awarding a California College Promise Grant (formerly known as Board of Governors Fee Waiver) to an ineligible student and not through the fault of the student, and to collect the enrollment fee would cause the student undue hardship.
