

Workplace Violence Prevention Summit

The Public Safety Department sponsored a Workplace Violence Prevention Summit presented by Sheriff's Lt. Damon Blankenbaker.

The summit included information on how to mitigate risks and incidents; how to keep the campus and classrooms secure; situational awareness techniques; increasing recognition of potential threats, and recognition of the path to path and why people carry out attacks. The session included 1 ½ hours of classroom learning and 1 ½ hours of hands-on training.

Welcome to our new employee!

Jane Galarneau has been hired as the executive assistant to Tim Corcoran, Vice Chancellor, Human Resources. She previously worked for six years as an administrative assistant in Student Affairs at Grossmont College. Before that, she had a part-time position in the Cuyamaca College President's Office for three years while she attended San Diego State University, where she earned her bachelor's degree in Journalism and Media Studies. Before working at Cuyamaca College, Jane worked for six years in the Human Resource office for the city of Santee.

New Sustainability Specialist

Jeff Paris is the new Cenergistic Sustainability Specialist at the District. He joined the Marine Corps in 1998, where he spent the next 21 years working as an Administrative/Personnel Chief working with legal and personnel issues. In the Marine Corps, his responsibilities included being in charge of the recycling program while he also ran the energy conservation counsel for a command of over 300 employees.

He retired from the Marine Corps in March 2019 and settled in San Diego, where he recently joined the Cenergistic team. If you have questions about sustainability, please contact Jeff at (619) 644-7975.
