Board President Garrett opened public hearing on the District’s 2013-2014 Adoption Budget at 6:37 p.m. Vice Chancellor Rearic reported the budget reflects the full $398M approved for the Proposition V budget and that the District anticipates spending $10.1M in the first year of the bond. Board President Garrett closed public comment at 6:40 p.m.

On motion of members Barr/Hiel, with a unanimous vote of 5-0, the 2013-2014 Adoption Budget was approved.
Changes to Docket of Business
Chancellor Miles announced Attachment A to docket item 501 was revised and distributed.

Approval of Minutes
On motion of members Barr/Rosinski with a unanimous vote of 5-0, the Board approved the August 20, 2013, regular, and August 23, 2013, special, meeting minutes as presented.

Reports of the Governing Board
Trustees Garrett, Hiel, and Rosinski attended the Grossmont College Fall Scholarship Breakfast and expressed appreciation for the event and thanks to everyone who provided student scholarships.

Trustees also commended and thanked everyone for the 4:00 p.m. workshop on the Board’s role in accreditation and for all the work being accomplished for students, the transparency in the work, and for keeping the Board so well informed.

Cuyamaca College Student Trustee Hernandez reported on student activities.

Report of the Board President
Board President Garrett attended the Cuyamaca College grand opening event for the Intergenerational Garden and the Staged Readings from the work of Edgar Allan Poe fundraising event.

Board President Garrett announced Grossmont College Student Trustee Peg Marcus tendered her resignation from the Board, and that Chancellor Miles has authorized the Associated Students Grossmont College to hold a special election, which will be held September 30-October 1.

Report of the Chancellor
The Annual Capital Construction Projects Workshop was presented by Senior Director of Facilities, Planning, Development & Maintenance Dale Switzer, and Gafcon Senior Project Manager Jim Davies.

Switzer provided information on the following items:
- Completed projects under Proposition R and remaining projects to be funded through Proposition V
- The District’s Five-Year Construction Plan, which is required by the State to determine whether the District is eligible for State funding for capital projects
- Initial Project Proposals being submitted to the State for two projects on each campus
- The pool of architects for Proposition V projects being reviewed and created
- The review of District design standards occurring, which includes a focus session on hardware and all security-related items such as doors and cameras
- Supplemental Environmental Impact Report underway based on the new Facilities Master Plan
- The development of detailed budgets for all projects in the Facilities Master Plan

Davies provided a report on the completion of Proposition R projects and preparations underway for the beginning of Proposition V-funded projects.

A Proposition V Bonds presentation was provided by RBC Capital Markets representative Ryan Vollmer highlighting the Series 2013A bond issuance, and included information and Board discussion on the following items:
- The District’s high credit rating from Standard & Poors and Moody’s Rating Scale of a Double A and Double A-2, which allows for more cost-efficient interest rates
- The District’s historical assessed valuation
- Refunding bonds issued for Proposition R, saving District taxpayers approximately $830,000 over the life of the bonds
- No long-term Capital Appreciation Bonds are anticipated
The District will maintain a 10-year call position and option of refinancing if interest rates drop.

The District’s 2012-2013 Annual Report to the Community, titled “Success Stories” was previewed by Communications and Public Information Director Anne Krueger.

Chancellor Miles expressed thanks to many people, including Associate Vice Chancellor Sahar Abushaban for work on the 2013-2014 adoption budget; District Coordinating Accreditation Council members for their work and efforts over the past three years to bring forth best practices from both colleges; and Senior Director of Facilities, Planning, Development & Maintenance Dale Switzer and Gafcon Sr. Project Manager Jim Davies for their work over the past 10 years on Propositions R and V construction projects.

President Cooke reported on the Hyde Art Gallery sculpture collection by Art Instructor Stephanie Bedwell; 9/11 Remembrance activities; and grants secured by Librarian Nadra-Farina Hess and Political Economy Professor Todd Meyers.

President Zacovic reported on the Diversity Dialogues series and recent workshop presented by Dr. Sami Jihad on Chaldean culture; and grand opening activities and invited guests for the new Intergenerational Garden.

Vice Chancellor Rearic reported on the Campus & Parking Services (CAPS) Department positions being filled and meetings of the Police & Public Safety Transition Taskforce.

Vice Chancellor Human Resources Edwards said everyone has made her feel very welcome.

The Presidents’ and Vice Chancellor Reports were distributed.
