Report of the Chancellor

Vice Chancellor Rearic provided information on docket item 307 concerning the request to the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Diego to establish tax rates for the next series of bonds to be issued. She introduced Christen Villalobos, RBC Capital Markets, who explained the steps for establishing a bond rating with agencies and reported the District’s numbers and local economic news are positive. Rearic noted steps include a resolution to the Board authorizing the new bonds and to authorize refinancing older bond debt to save taxpayer money.

Associate Vice Chancellor Research, Planning & Technology Tarman presented a review of the annual systemwide and District goals developed under the State Chancellor’s Institutional Effectiveness Partnership Initiative. The goals fall into four categories: student performance, accreditation, fiscal health, and compliance with State and federal guidelines. Tarman said the District is already integrating these indicators into its monitoring of strategic plan implementation. The Grossmont College Vice President of Academic Affairs Katrina VanderWoude reported on the Pathways to Success Academy celebration for a cohort of 21 women within the Las Colinas Women’s Detention facility; the activities of the Basic Needs Task Force, including Gizmo’s Kitchen opening in the fall, and the college’s participation in the San Diego Pride Parade.

Chancellor Miles expressed appreciation to VanderWoude and Vice President Student Services Marsha Gable for their work and efforts with the Restorative Justice program in serving inmates. She also reported there is a new billboard has been installed on Interstate 8 East advertising the District as part of the marketing campaign.

The Chancellor’s Cabinet member reports were distributed.
