

Public Safety and Emergency Preparedness Council Spring 2016 Newsletter

Did you know?

YOU are a Disaster Service Worker!

All public employees are included in the disaster service worker status when employed by any county, city, state agency or public district per California Government Code Section 3100-3109.

As a public employee, you may be called upon by your supervisor or law enforcement to assist in the event of a fire, flood, earthquake or other natural or man-made disaster.

CALLING ON A FEW GOOD PEOPLE!

Do you have an emergency preparedness skill you can share with the campus community? We would like to hear from you. If you are certified in OES or FEMA training, Search and Rescue, Communications or CERT Trained, the Campus Emergency Preparedness Committees are looking for volunteers. Please email Nicole Conklin at Nicole.Conklin@gcccd.edu.

Building Marshals Call For Volunteers

Are you interested in being a building marshal for your building? A building marshal would oversee and ensure safe and complete evacuation or relocation of occupants during a fire, other emergency, or a fire drill. A 2-hour training course will be provided. Please email Nicole Conklin at Nicole.Conklin@gcccd.edu.

New Emergency Information Line

In the event of an emergency on our campuses, we will use a variety of ways to communicate the latest information to all including updates on websites, e-mail and text. In addition, you can now call 1-800-550-3922 for general information and instructions for faculty, staff and students regarding campus operations, business or classes when GCCCD's Emergency Operations and Preparedness teams have been activated.
